3 INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS

4 A. Whenever in the discovery requests there is a request to identify a person, 5 please identify such person by setting forth his or her name and age, present
6 residence address and telephone number, business address and telephone 7 number, job title and description of such person's relationship to the subject 8 matter of this lawsuit.

9 B. Whenever the term "person" is used herein, it means any natural person, 10 corporation, association, general or limited partnership, joint venture, trust or 11 any other organization with a separate identity.

12 C. These discovery requests are continuing in nature. If any information addressed 13 by the discovery requests is not learned until after the discovery requests are 14 answered, or for any reason any answer later becomes incorrect, pursuant to 15 F.R.C.P. Rule 26(e) and applicable case law, the party answering these 16 discovery requests shall supplement or change the answers previously 17 submitted.

18 D. With respect to all documents which are not produced to Plaintiff for any 19 reason, please provide a "Privilege Log" which identifies the document by 20 setting forth the date of the document, the nature of the document (i.e., 21 memorandum, letter, etc.), the author of the document, the name and title of 22 each person to whom the documents (or a copy thereof) was sent or shown, the

1 general subject matter of the document and the specific basis relied upon for not 2 producing the document (such as, by way of example only, "attorney-client" 3 privilege).

4 E. The terms "document," "documents," or "documentation," as used in these 5 interrogatories and/or requests for production, have the same meaning here as in 6 FRCP 34, and includes writings of any kind and character pertaining to the 7 designated subject matter, including, without limitation, the original and copy, 8 regardless of origin or location, of any book, pamphlet, periodical, letter, 9 memorandum, diary, file, note, statement, bill, invoice, policy, telegram, 10 correspondence, e-mail, summary, receipt, opinion, investigation statement or 11 report, schedule, manual, financial statement, audit, tax return, draft, articles of 12 incorporation, bylaws, stock book, minute book, agreement, contract, deed, 13 security agreement, mortgage, deed of trust, title or other insurance policy, 14 report, record, study, handwritten note, typewritten note, map, drawing, 15 working paper, chart, paper, index, tape, microfilm, data sheet, data processing 16 card, or any other written, typed, printed, photocopied, dittoed, mimeographed, 17 multilithed, recorded, transcribed, punched, taped, filmed, photographic or 18 graphic matters, however produced, to which you may have or have had access.
19 If said document is no longer in your possession or subject to your control, state 20 what disposition is made of the same and where it is presently located. include 21 any written, graphic or printed matter and any matter recorded on any media 22 permitting reproduction (specifically including all data, text and images

1 maintained in any electronic format). Where documents are maintained both 2 electronically and in hard copy format, both versions of the documents should 3 be produced in the format in which they are maintained.

4 F. A request to produce documents is a request to produce all documents in the 5 possession, custody or control of the party to whom the request is directed and 6 that party's officers, employees and agents, including the party's past or present 7 counsel, consultants, and accountants.

8
9 These discovery requests are continuing and require supplemental answers upon 10 discovery of additional pertinent information. See FRCP 26(g).

11 INTERROGATORIES

12 INTERROGATORY NO. 1: State your full name, date of birth and Social
